

The Ven Dr Paul Wright

Chairman of Governors

Paul read Theology at King's College London in preparation for ordination. Since then he has undertaken a research degree at the University of Wales, Lampeter. He is at present the Archdeacon of Bromley & Bexley in the Diocese of Rochester, and also the Priest-in-Charge of St Augustine's Church, Slade Green.

Paul is a Member of three Multi-Academy Trusts and has extensive experience of school governorship, both at primary and secondary level. He became Chairman of Governors at St Olave's in September 2017.

He is a Trustee of the Biggin Hill Memorial Museum Trust, which has responsibility for looking after the former RAF Chapel of St George's. The site is currently undergoing redevelopment to incorporate a museum facility.

He is a Member of the St Olave's & St Saviour's School Foundation.

Paul is married to Jill. They have three adult children and two young grandchildren. He enjoys a daily walk with Dolly (his German Shepherd dog), and when the weather is warm and dry you will see him riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle!
