

Mr S. Ganatra

Sonesh joined the governing body of St Olave's in September 2018. He is the vice chair of the Resources and Premises committee.

Sonesh studied at Cass Business School and has a masters in mathematical trading and finance. His background is as a derivatives trader for various investment banks and hedge funds.

Since 2016, Sonesh is a partner in a consultancy practice that advises schools, colleges, nurseries and academies on their finances. He is also the principal of Square Private Markets, a company that acts as an intermediary in the alternative investment sector. In addition, Sonesh is an advisory board member for Loop, a startup technology company based in London.

Sonesh is married to Aangelee who also works in schools finance, they both have a young daughter together.

In his spare time, Sonesh likes to watch films, read, relax and travel.

✉ GOVsganatra@saintolaves.net